ADDRESS CARRIED WITHOUT AMENDMENT

Hiebert Rambles from Monopolies to Coyotes in Search of a Point of Attack—John T. as eloquent as Usual—John R. Boyle makes Some Important Statements About the Government Telephones and Western Grain Trade to Europe and the Orient

The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne was concluded yesterday afternoon and on motion of the Premier and the Attorney General the House agreed to have the address engrossed and presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor by the members of the executive council. On behalf of the opposition the debate was resumed by Mr. C. Hiebert, the member for Rosebud. His speech contributed nothing new to the debate. He contented himself with repetition of the grievances of his leader and made an attack upon the G. T. P. railway project, which he described as a "typical monstrous proposition," "nursed in the east, and stretching in lines of blood across the land." He criticized the government for not procuring Hiebert's report of the speeches made in the House. Mr. John T. Moore, member for Red Deer, made a stirring reply and called the attention of the speaker to his mad dog of sinister phrases. The debate finished with an admirable speech by J. R. Boyle, the member for Sturgeon, which was a real contribution to the debate. He moved that the opposition with all their condemnation against corporation greed had failed to give one word of appreciation for what the Rutherford government had already done to grant relief from the corporations. The debate was carried without an amendment being offered by the opposition.

Upon the orders of the day being called the Premier stated that a number of private bills had been received, but without petitions, and requested the members to attend to such matters at once as no private bill can come before a standing committee without a petition.

JOHN T. MOORE
Member for Red Deer.

John T. Moore, the member for Red Deer, replied to Mr. Hiebert. He said the house had listened to a touching description of the situation in the west, but had concluded upon a fear that the house would lose its independence and be dominated by a family compact. These were the phrases the member for Rosebud was not responsible in the use of. The family compact complained of included every person in Alberta. He also added a word of tribute to the former members for Glenora and Vermilion. He congratulated the administration on what they had done. There was not one word uttered by the opposition as to any act or law put on the statute books.

CORNELIUS HIEBERT

At the other member for Rosebud said he hoped that he would be listened to. He rose with last year's trembling, when he remembered the fine words of the member for Red Deer last session. The mover and seconder of the speech were the same. Even the invincible opposition were considered.

The first thing in the speech from the throne was a reference to the provincial conference. Why should this government, elected a year ago with the terms of the autonomy satisfactory, wander off to make better terms? That tip indicated fully the intention of the Conservative party, made during the election.

"We are to get better terms than under the Alberta act, and that makes me feel better," said the speaker amid applause.

"We find that construction is going to be done in construction of railways. If we make good laws with regard to these railways it will be a good thing."

He shared the regret of his leader that no reference was made to a life to Hudson's Bay, by the coasted that the government build the road. That would save us from the grasping corporations. He commented on the act of the legislature last session of taxing the railways as squandering a little blood from the devil fish "that is as to the results that attend his important industry.

Referring to the threatened cry of being robbed over lands, he said it was the political friends of the opposition that alienated our patriotism as it remained for a Liberal government to try to restore it by allowing settlers to homestead not only even, but also not numbered sections. Alberta had received the greatest of immigrants to Canada. There was a great and natural wholesome spirit seen in the demand for more schools. He established the government on their policy to maintain the purity of the streams of the province, and declared that it would be a measure that would win the support and gratitude of every citizen.

Mr. J. R. Boyle, member for Sturgeon, closed the debate. He said he had closed with a good deal of interest to the opposition in their criticism of the speech from the throne and was surprised that with so much fault finding they had no measure of their own to propose. Mr. Boyle thought that the men of the province should be optimistic. If the House were to be optimistic, he would suggest a more realistic measure. The member for Rosebud had a vision and saw only the ghost of a combine. His remarks were very indefinite. The farmers of the province were confident of the future. The leader of the opposition had no remedy for the farmer was getting too little for his grain, but had no remedy. The Dominion government appointed a grain commission to investigate this matter, yet the leader of the opposition had never appeared before the commission to give evidence. He said the government had not blocked railway building in this province. Every charter was granted but not enough same guardians appointed. He wanted a union of coyotes. He followed in the track of his leader and declared that he had been in the twentieth century in Alberta than was enjoyed in the days of the feudal system.

Referring to the proposal to amend the Game Act, he said that there were not enough game guardians appointed. He wanted a union of coyotes. He followed in the track of his leader and declared that he had been in the twentieth century in Alberta than was enjoyed in the days of the feudal system. He denied the statements of the premier that he had gone into Glenora and disowned his leader. He had been misrepresented by the public press.

When the speaker to the level when to the Pacific we have a similar outlet to the Oriental market. He predicted that this would force the C. P. R. to lower their grades and Alberta grain will then pass out by the western route, very little to the west. The route there will be but one terminal and less handling of grain. No concessions to railways should be made except with trunk lines to tide water.

It was surprising that in railing against monopoly that the leader of the opposition should take exception to taxing the corporations and that he could give the government no credit for seeking relief from monopoly of the Bell telephone. The Alberta Premier is the first that has ever broken such a monopoly effect. He outlined the present policy of the administration on this question to connect exchanges by lines and declared that he was strongly in favor of the government undertaking the complete control and operation of the telephones of the province. This should be done as the revenues increase and avoid incurring any public debt.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH HANNAH?

Big Row in Ontario Conservative Camp Over Paternity.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—There is said to be a big row on in the Conservative camp in Ontario and a session of the central patronage committee has been called to meet in Toronto next Saturday for the purpose of pointing out the alleged misdeeds of Hannah. Some say that the objections are so many and pronounced to the patronage committee, and that they either go or a new Conservative association will take their place.

SOMMAMBUSIST IN LUCK.

Fell From Tail End of Express and Escaped Unharmed.

Guelph, Jan. 30.—J. W. Porter, who was coming east from Montreal, was travelling in the tail end of an express train for Guelph. He was very nervous and nervous. He was taken to a hospital and is now recovering.

AUSTRALIAN PREFERENCE

Canada Offers to Reduce Tariff on All Australian Products if Fish, Lumber and Implements Are Limited Free

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier presented to parliament today the correspondence between Canada and Australia regarding the preference. The premier suggested a preference with Australia in lumber, agricultural implements, horse and shoe and other manufactured goods. Sir Wilfrid Laurier also suggested that Australia take power in the tariff to grant a preference the same as Canada had and the matter could be closed at the coming colonial conference in London. Premier Deakin thought it unlikely that the Commonwealth parliament would agree to such power, as the tariff was now generally too high. He said Australia was willing to grant certain concessions on certain specified commodities. The matter would be finished at the colonial conference. Finally Canada cabled that it would accept a preference on all Australian products and in return wanted as a concession certain articles, particularly Canadian lumber and fish, enter Australia free.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Parliament spent the greater part of the afternoon discussing Borden's motion to discuss the vacancy in the supreme court bench of the British Columbia. Mr. Aylesworth said that the vacancy did not interfere with the administration of justice. The balance of the day was spent on the Aylesworth bill respecting the export duty on electric goods.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Hon. Frank Oliver and the Western Liberal members had an interview with Hon. Mr. Borden today in regard to the fishing regulations in the lakes in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan. The western members are said to be opposed to summer fishing.

FIRST MOVE FOR THE BIG FAIR

Council Appoints a Committee to Work With Fair Committee—Financial Statement of Last Year Establishes a Precedent in Fair Management

Joseph Morris, as representing the Eastern Association, addressed the fair committee last night and divulged a state of affairs in connection with the provincial fair of last year which is probably unique in the history of fair management throughout the west.

Last year the association asked for a guarantee against loss to the extent of $50,000. Last night Mr. Morris reported that there was no loss, but that there was a surplus of $50,000.

The financial statement, which has been just issued, shows that the fair is just being launched as well as otherwise, an unprecedented success. Despite the fact that the entrance fee was lower than any other fair in the west, that interest paid, he charged against the ordinary expenditure and that there was more gain in the United States in years of membership, having been initiated at Chesham, B. M. May, 1888.

At last, becoming desperate a number of farmers who have been waiting in town for about four days for a supply to come in, attacked a C.P.R. car in the yards and loaded up their selfish, after which they went to the agent and paid for it. One farmer who has been in town for nearly a week said that when he left home he was only a pallid of coal left, and he was afraid his family has suffered greatly during the past day or two.

BOOMING ENLARGEMENT OF WELLAND CANAL

St. Catharines Board of Trade Alleges That This Is Only Way to Save Carrying Trade to Canada—Claim Northern Canal Freezes Too Early in the Year For Grain Traffic—Unless Welland Is Enlarged Trade Will Reach Sea Board by the Erie Canal

St. Catharines, Ont., Jan. 30.—At an adjourned meeting of the Thorold board of trade a committee was appointed to prepare a memorial to the Dominion government, acting in conjunction with the boards of trade of Winnipeg, Montreal and Kingston, petitioning for the enlargement of the Welland canal rather than spend money in building the proposed Georgian Bay canal. During the discussion it was pointed out that vessels would be unable to use the Georgian Bay canal after the last of December, as it would, as a rule be frozen up that early each winter, whereas the

TROUBLE IN EQUITY SOCIETY IN THAW TRIAL

Hold Secret Meeting in City From Which Last Year's Auditor Is Excluded—Incorporation Alters Completion of Society and Old Members Are Out

From what can be learned of the proceedings of the meetings of the Society of Equity held yesterday and today in the City hall, matters have reached a highly exciting crisis. Some of the delegates who came all the way from Claresholm have been excluded from the sessions of the society. The members of the society were coming to a convention similar to the annual convention held last year at Lacombe. Instead they were informed that the meeting was one of the shareholders of the Society of Equity, limited, which has been incorporated since the last annual convention and apparently has superseded the old society. Members of the old society have no standing in the new organization except they agree to take a new charter. The society is now North of the Claresholm River, who was appointed last year at the convention in Lacombe, was refused admission today. It is said the new society will build elevators and engage in the elevator business. The president of the society is J. M. Moran, of Fort Saskatchewan, and the secretary W. J. Keane, of Edmonton. Other gentlemen in attendance today are Messrs. O. J. Berg, R. Pearson, M. A. Strang, D. W. W. Bickney and O. Nelson of Claresholm, and H. Hopkins, Stanley, M. W. Wickson, Caylor, A. A. Shaw, Nanton.

Port Saskatchewan will install telephone line to connect with Government Line.

The people of Alberta are losing no time in taking advantage of the long distance telephone system now generalised by the provincial government. Fort Saskatchewan will install telephone line to connect with Government Line.

WHERE WAS HE

The chief grievance in the speech of the leader of the opposition on Monday evening was that the Government had put up a vigorous campaign in the constituency of Gleichen, making the complaint that the Opposition needed strengthening in the legislature. Is this not a poor time for such a complaint? Where was the leader of the Opposition during that bye-election? Notwithstanding the fact that his own constituency adjoints that of Gleichen he did not take the trouble to come over the line fence to speak with his neighbors upon a matter of such grave importance.

When bye-elections are held for the House of Commons the voice of Mr. Borden is always heard advocating his cause and that of his candidate. When Mr. Whitney was in opposition in Ontario he spoke in practically every bye-election, and if Mr. Robertson deemed it of such importance that another supporter should be elected in Gleichen then he neglected his duty as leader of the Opposition in deserting his cause and his candidate in the hour of battle.

There was no Macdonaldian call to the people from Mr. Robertson during that campaign, can it be that there was no Macdonaldian call to Mr. Robertson from the Conservative candidate. Nothing would have helped the Opposition in that contest quite so much as for Mr. Robertson to have gone into the campaign and asked the people to give him the help in opposition that he needed and nothing was quite so injurious to the Conservative campaign as the attack made upon the leader of the Opposition by a certain section of the press, and the booming of the Gleichen candidate as leader of the Opposition.

We don't think any effort of Mr. Robertson could have defeated the popular Liberal candidate in Gleichen, but after failing to even appear in the constituency to advocate the cause of his candidate or his party it is hardly his right to complain at the Liberals for presenting their case as strongly as possible to the electors of Gleichen. They were not ashamed of either their cause or the record of their party and the Premier's reply that he hoped the Liberals would always carry on their elections vigorously because they have the courage of their convictions, was a most effective one. The Opposition leader did not show up very well playing this role.

BETTER INFORMATION NEEDED

The fire in the Chisholm block and the difficulty in overcoming it suggests the necessity of the fire chief becoming better acquainted with the buildings of the city and the means of obtaining access to them in case of fire. We have no complaint to make against either the chief or the firemen and the valiant fight they made to save the building in that recent conflagration, but there are dozens of buildings on the main street of the city about which, if there ought to be fire, the chief would not possess the necessary information to deal quickly and effectively with the blaze.

We believe it would be very much in the interests of the city for the chief to make a personal inspection, both inside and outside of every business place in the city, securing such data and where necessary such plans as would enable him to use his men to the very best possible advantage when fire broke out. This is a very serious and important matter and should engage the attention of the city council. Just how effectively this

SOME CREDIT DUE

Mr. Boyle in his speech yesterday very properly reprimanded the members of the opposition for their loud and general declamations against combines while they had no single word of commendation for the action of the government which by its legislation last session had taken a drastic step to relieve the people from the monopoly of the Bell telephone.

It is an easy matter to lash corporations with your tongue upon the floor of the legislature, but it is another matter to deal with them in a practical manner such as the government has dealt with the telephone question. The Alberta government has started out with its face firmly set against all encroachments upon the peoples' rights by corporations of any kind. The government is doing things rather than talking about them. To harangue corporations in general may be politics of a certain kind—but it can hardly be counted statesmanship.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Mr. Holden wasn't afraid to say a good word for his constituency.

The Journal sees something partisan in everything. "All seems infected that the infected spy."

Speaker Fisher reached the legislative chamber about nine o'clock on Monday evening, having been out in a foot race with the Minister of Public Works.

The difference between knowing your ground and having a smattering of it was well illustrated by the speeches of the Premier and the leader of the Opposition.

When a man or newspaper pretends to call another partisan names rather than meet arguments it generally proves to be a case of the guilty man with the guilty thing in the top of his head.

Mr. Riley referred to the "almost" invincible Opposition and the Opposition leader immediately quoted the reference, leaving the "almost" out. What an influence the Calgary Herald should have on its party followers.

From characterizing the Grand Trunk Pacific as a preposterous blood-sucking scheme to a pathetic appeal for a bounty upon exiles, measures the distance travelled by the vivid imagination of the member for Rosebud in his speech yesterday.

The glib rough and tumble use of phrases in ordinary parliamentary debate like "free commerce" and "free trade of parliament" cannot be too strongly discouraged. In the long perspective of Canadian history these phrases have a terrible significance, and become dangerous and tend to demoralize the tone of debate, when used in an irresponsible manner.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE
IN THE BULLETIN

The Private Secretary

"The Private Secretary" has proven itself a very successful attraction. Last night it drew a large audience and on Monday night the opera house was crowded with an audience eager to see that delightful old farce comedy. Theatre-goers and non-theatre-goers were there, and all left the opera house with the same thought: "It was excellent!" Verily both honor and applause were accorded on this occasion to sundry "prospects in their own country."

For Edmonton's actors had scored a success, and Edmonton, looking on, holding its side with laughter, was delighted to acknowledge it. Even those who had expected that the Edmonton Dramatic Club's presentation of the play would be somewhat were pleasantly surprised. It surpassed expectations; it was a veritable triumph of amateur histrionic ability.

Mr. Arnold Burley's play of self-complacency through a most untoward series of accidents and misadventures with unappreciative fellow mortals was excellent; his own passive resistance to Mr. Cattermole's unfriendly embraces in particular, and to Pat's general way was an enjoyable bit of work. His wall for the "ham sandwiches" and hostility of milk were almost as funny as the masquerading person's steps into unauthorised language.

Mrs. Hyndman, a quite difficult part of the young-old spinster with susceptible affections and spiritualistic leanings, filled her place in the cast in an artistic manner and brought out every atom of the delicious satire behind the comedy, and merited the applause accorded. Mr. Bedford, as Jean Cattermole made a vastly entertaining and ingenious young blade, while Mr. Jennings as Harry Marshland was both entertaining and convincing.

Mrs. Saunders as the impetuous Mrs. Reed laughed and wept and whistled her way in carpet slippers through her role in an amusing way, playing the thimble-skate of good angel to Douglas very well. Mr. Silas made an excellent Gibson and a very droll one at times, sharing the honors with Mrs. Hyndman and Mr. McLeod for clear enunciation.

Mr. Bruce McLeod as Cattermole was convincing—a very strong feature of the play, blustering his erratic way through the comedy with an energy that was fraught with amusing consequences. His friend Marshland, interpreted by Mr. Greenwood, was an essential peg on which to hang the plot and was well taken by Mr. Clifford was a somewhat timid wallflower.

Mrs. Barrow and Miss McCauley made a very pretty duo of stage-maidens with luscious and demure ways respectively, and their places in the cast were quite acceptably filled. A highland dance by little Miss Saunders and an amusing character sketch by Mr. Silas helped to pass the intermission pleasantly.

Added brilliancy was lent to the scene in the flag draped opera house by the presence of a party from Government House, including His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, Mrs. Bulyea and Mrs. Finlay with Capt. Saunders, A.D.C., in attendance. A crimson-carpeted space with arm chairs had been reserved for the party, which was flanked on either side by rows of officers in scarlet uniforms. Mrs. Bulyea was handsomely attired in a pale violet satin gown, en princess, with a graceful train and sash ends of filmy lace caught with an occasional spray of violets. With this was worn a beautiful evening cloak of broadened satin in the shades of blue and gray tints of a dove's breast, richly bordered with ermine lending it a note of regal distinction. Mrs. Finlay was attractively gowned in a soft gray costume with silver paillettes and overtones, touches of white chiffon ruchings.

The majority of the ladies present were evening dress, and the ensemble was very effective. But the centre of attraction was always the sage, where a highly pleasing presentation was being given around Mr. Arnold Burley as an amusing Passive Resister. Among those noted in the audience were Mayor Greenwood, Lieut. Hart, Col. Edwards, Capt. Daniel, Lieut. d'Eassey, Lieut. Whittaker, Capt. Carstairs, Mrs. Hendley, Sergt. Major and Mrs. Hishop, Dr. and Mrs. Brithwaite, Mrs. N. D. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Almont Mr. and Mrs. Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Pardee, Mrs. Slocock, Mrs. Harwood, Mrs. Harcourt, Mrs. Perrie, Mrs. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. St. George Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mrs. J. D. Hyndman, Mr. J. A. Anderson, Mr. J. Alfred Hughes, Mrs. Graydon, Mr. and Mrs. Emory, Mr. and Mrs. Nightingale, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fraser.

Talks on Orange Meat

(THE PURE FOOD) No. 1.

Canadian from field to table.

ORANGE MEAT is made from the best wheat grown in Canada.

That's the reason why it is the best cereal in the world. From the Western wheat fields, it is brought by rail and lake right to our elevators at Kingston. Then our experts cook, malt and toast it changing wheat starch to wheat sugar. From the time it enters our elevators as wheat—until it comes on your table as ORANGE MEAT—it is never touched by human hands. The wheat is entirely handled by machinery. It is a Canadian cereal—perfected by Canadians—to build up the health and delight the appetite of Canadians.

ORANGE MEAT contains all the body, brain and vigor building elements of wheat.

It's not merely "some" wheat—it's the whole wheat. It contains the whole wheat—both the hull and the germ which supplies nourishment to the nerves and brain. ORANGE MEAT weighs 15 more than any other package.

Your grocer has ORANGE MEAT in 15c and 25c packages. The 15c contains enough good for new premiums. The 25c contains 25% more than the 15c quantity. Write "Orange Meat, Kingston," for new premium catalogue.

Red Deer

At the hockey match last night between Oils and Red Deer, Oils was again victorious by a score of 1-1. The game was not played on strictly scientific lines, but was a good one to watch. Red Deer made many good rushes but their shots lacked force and Smith, the Oils goal keeper, was very busy. A coming hockey player by the way, was able to throw the puck. The game was a trifle rough and Red Deer had the hands full dealing out penalties.

If there was any stalling done on the Red Deer side, Cannon, the new half-back player should get credit for playing a good, steady game. All through and his was practically the only shot the Oils goal keeper had to fear. Frank Corbett on right wing did remarkably well. This betted the first match he has been in the game and shows promise of being as good a player as his brother Roy.

It is expected that the finals between the winners of this north-west division of the league will be held in Red Deer.

A banquet was tendered the Oils team immediately after the game at the Windsor Hotel. It was a decided success and gave the Oils players a good time.

AMATEUR SPORTING ASSOCIATION TO BE FORMED

At the banquet given the hockey boys at the Windsor Hotel, Thursday last, there was considerable discussion on the merits of amateur and professional sports, and taking into consideration the representative men present both from Oils and Red Deer the matter was thought an opportune one for the formation of an association to further amateur sports. After a while, A. Gault spoke briefly but to the point as to his views on amateur and professional sports. He said that while the larger towns could probably afford a complete professional aggregation the smaller towns could not and a semi-professional team, at least in Red Deer, had better be decided for. Mr. H. Wallace pointed out how in the last couple of years it has been impossible to get ball games on with any towns in the line, but Calgary, Winnipeg and Edmonton, and while Red Deer the year before last had carried off a few games, last year it was with Calgary and with Edmonton, and it was finally decided to appoint a committee to communicate with all the towns in the C. & P. R. and to form an amateur association. R. E. Brown, H. Wallace and J. Mann were appointed on the committee.

Mr. Clowey of Oils then rose to the occasion and remarked that while he was interested in all sports such as hockey, baseball and soccer, he was something yet nearer to his heart and that was racing. He said that he was why sufficient money could not be raised for race meeting in the various towns along the line to make it worth while for the good horses going through from Calgary to Edmonton to stop off, thus making their trip round. A meeting to form a race association had been held at Innisfail last year but nothing had been done.

Considerable discussion followed and it was decided to appoint a committee of two from Oils and two from Red Deer to communicate with the towns along the line. For Oils Messrs. Clowey and Henderson were appointed and for Red Deer, Mr. J. Mann and J. Mann were appointed.

Red Deer has probably more than its share of good fast horses. Mr. Parson owns a good solid bunch of three-year-olds and many others are owned by various townsmen.

Mr. Parson's interest in the sport is so far from being a decided success that he will not be able to attend the Alberta race meeting at Innisfail on Saturday.

We are informed that J. P. New has purchased A. W. Peck's blacksmith shop.

Fort Saskatchewan

Postmaster Campbell has received notification from the government authorities at Calgary to have the mail carried by stage until such time as the service can be resumed on the Canadian Pacific.

The weather up here is bitterly cold with mountains of snow, but we have had no serious suffering from severity of frost or otherwise.

Mr. Higgins of Government street has sold out his business and residence in the West and is leaving very soon for Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Higgins have resided here for several years and have left with the good wishes of many friends.

Mr. Higgins is able to be around again after his attack of pneumonia. A number of our townsmen have been disappointed in not being able to attend the opening of Parliament owing to the place on the train service.

Frank Walker, M.P., and Inspector Wainwright will be in the city on the 21st.

There is a stand at a standstill at the two elevators, but cars would be of very little use, without trains to take them to the city.

A Temperance Reform petition was in circulation around town this last week and has been signed by a number of townsmen in the West.

The petition is for the purpose of limiting the hours of sale of liquor to a maximum of one thousand and one license for each additional thousand. Closing the bars at 7 o'clock every evening and all day on religious holidays, such as Christmas, Good Friday and Thanksgiving, also various other purposes.

PROMINENT CANADIAN ARTIST

RESTORED BY BILEANS

Below is given the testimony of a famous artist whose health has been restored by Bileans. If you are ailing to-day, scores of preparations claim your attention. Why should you prefer Bileans? There are several reasons. First, because they are specially compounded from rare vegetable essences. Then because they act directly on the most important organs of the body—the liver and stomach. Because they are mild in operation. Because medical practitioners, art's, nurses, housewives and men and women of wide experience have proved over and over again that Bileans permanently cure all liver and stomach disorders. Because Headache, Indigestion, Bileousness, Female Ailments, Constipation, Piles, etc., all originate from a certain morbid condition of the liver, digestive system and blood. Bileans cure these and other ailments by getting right back at the root cause and correcting matters there. Now note Mr. Rand's experience below:—

Mr. Arthur R. Rand, of Woodgreen Place, Toronto, the well known artist and teacher of painting on glass, china, etc., says:—I was very ill some months ago with acute indigestion and liver disorders. Attacks of pain followed food. There was a constant feeling of uncomfortable fullness in the stomach, pain in the chest and under the shoulder blades and sitting and belching of gas. I had constipation so badly that no medicines seemed to have any effect on the bowels. I dined a great deal, but the slightest food brought the same distress. You can well imagine that as I did not digest my food properly my strength rapidly fell away. I was very weak and emaciated when Bileans were brought to my attention but I determined to give them a trial. From the first few doses I got a little relief and I persevered with the remedy, giving it a fair trial. I left off everything else and in a short time found a wonderful difference. Each day I got better and better, and in the end Bileans cured me completely. Now my food digests very nicely and my bowels act quite naturally. Before I took Bileans my food did me no good, and I was losing weight rapidly. In a few months, through the use of this valuable remedy, my weight increased from 125 to 165 lbs. This increase, too, is not due to fat, but sound, healthy flesh.

Bileans Cure

Kidney Disease and Sick Headache Completely Cured

Just as the foregoing case shows how effective Bileans are in cases of indigestion, Constipation and allied ailments, the following experience of a British Columbia man and his wife shows their value in cases of kidney disease. When the kidneys are diseased, impurities are forced into the blood which should be expelled from the system, and being carried to the head by the circulation cause sick headache, nausea, dizziness, etc.

W. B. Haines, of Shortwood, B. C., says:—My wife and I have been taking Bileans for some time. My wife has cured me of kidney troubles and my wife of sick headache. I had had kidney trouble for 20 years, but now believe that I am entirely cured. Please find enclosed $2.50, for which send me six boxes of Bileans. I believe they are a splendid family medicine.

MRS. HUNTER'S STORY

Many thanks are "Truly Wonderful"

Mrs. J. Hunter, of 111

Bagin Road, Kingston,

Ont., says:—

"I have suffered with kidney and liver trouble and chronic constipation for some time. I was subject to dizziness, bilious headache, nervousness, depression, pains in the back and side, and a tired, heavy feeling nearly all the time."

"I tried almost every medicine, was treated by doctors and druggists with little or no benefit."

"I tried Dr. Leitch's Anti-Pill, and the results have been truly wonderful. I am so much better. Anti-Pill is a most wonderful remedy."
